Dwight Eisenhower and the Holocaust The Eclipse of Humanity Immanuel Kant und die Medizin Patentblatt Jason Lantzer Lawrence Perlman Hans Förstl

dwight eisenhower s encounter with the holocaust altered how he understood the second world war and shaped how he led the united states and the western alliance during the cold war this book is the first to blend scholarship on eisenhower world war ii and the holocaust together constructing a narrative that offers new insights into all three all while uncovering the story of how he became among the first to vow that such atrocities would never again be allowed to happen from the moment he stepped foot in the concentration camp ohrdruf in april 1945 defeating nazi germany took on a moral hue for eisenhower that had largely been absent before it spurred the belief that totalitarianism in all its forms needed to be confronted this conviction shaped his presidency and solidified american engagement in the postwar world putting these pieces of the story together alters how we view and understand the second half of the twentieth century it has been widely assumed that heschel s writings are poetic inspirations devoid of philosophical analysis and unresponsive to the evil of the holocaust who is man 1965 contains a detailed phenomenological analysis of man and being which is directed at the main work of martin heidegger found primarily in being and time 1927 and letter on humanism 1946 when the analysis of who is man is unpacked in the light of these associations it is clear that heschel rejected poetry and metaphor as a means of theological elucidation that he offered a profound examination of the holocaust and that the major thrust of his thinking eschews heideggerian deconstruction and the postmodernism that ensued in its phenomenological wake who is man contains direct and indirect criticisms of heidegger s notions of dasein thrownness facticity and submission to name a few essential heideggerian concepts in using his ontological connective method in opposition to heidegger s ontological difference heschel makes the argument that the biblical notion of adam as a being open to transcendence stands in opposition to the philosophical tradition from parmenides to heidegger and is the only basis for a redemptive view of humanity
